

The President's Corner

We are excited to see all the artistic talent displayed tonight for our Members Showcase. Lauren Travis, teacher and lecturer, will be our judge. To any guests, we extend a heartfelt welcome. As you enjoy our meeting tonight, please remember that all BMAL events and meetings happen through the efforts of our members who volunteer for various committees. Each of you has talents that could be used for the good of the group and we hope that you will become involved with the club activities. Remember to sign up for the free Winsor Newton workshop, Wednesday, March 28---6:30-8:30 PM. We will learn about the latest watercolor supplies and products from representative, Zach Bird. Thanks goes to all the members who brought goodies tonight. We do need someone to coordinate the May potluck dinner. Enjoy the show!

Please send all news to me at

Tonight's Speaker - - -

Lauren Travis, Owner/Director of Travis Gallery, will judge and critique our work tonight for the All Members Show.

Classically trained in oil painting, her still life paintings are intimate and full of symbolism. Working both Plein Air and in her studio, Lauren's landscape paintings are loose and painterly. Lauren has served as a juror for many regional exhibits.

She is a frequent lecturer on the arts and gives lessons in oils and drawing in her studio.

Of Concern to our Members

Our deepest sympathy to Eileen Gifford whose husband has passed away. Our thoughts and prayers go to Eileen and to her son David, both members of BMAL.

We wish a speedy recovery to Bernice McGarry who broke a ball joint in her leg.

*No matter what age we are as artists,
we are always students of art.*
Michael De Brito, artist

Please contact Lynne Whitsel with any information for the newsletter. Deadline is the Wednesday before the meeting.
