The President's Corner

Dear Members,

First, at this holiday season, wishes go out to all of you for enjoyable holidays and a healthy, happy New Year.

As we think about gifts that are given this time of year, consider the gifts of friendship, mutual respect, and appreciation of talents that are a hallmark of Bucks-Mont Art League. These qualities make each year a good year.

Your generosity is evident as we see all the delicious food that is provided for tonight's potluck. Many thanks to the Hospitality Committee, and the BMAL board, for their help in creating such a festive meal, as well as to all our talented cooks and shoppers. Thank you!

As you read of members displaying work and selling items, it speaks of the skill level of BMAL artists. If you are not participating in our shows, please do so, as this is an opportunity for your work to be appreciated and perhaps purchased. What an opportunity for you!

We have a request-----Please turn off your cell phones during the meeting, in consideration of the members and speakers.

Our speaker tonight, Perky Cohen, is an artist who specializes in the human figure and in emotions. Using media such as wood, clay, plaster, and papier-mâché, her creations will impress you, I know. We are delighted to have her join us.

Please speak to as many members as you know, or want to get to know, and spread the warmth of the holidays!

Please send all news to me at

Quick TIP

Try working from a different vantage point. Some of my favorite pieces were created by viewing the subject from directly above - from a sky view.
