The President's Corner

Welcome to our BMAL Members' Show. Just by looking around, you can see what talent lies within our membership. It is a night to celebrate all levels of artistry. To our visitors, we hope to have you return. As you talk to our members, you will find that friendliness is also on our agenda tonight.

At 6:30, judging for the show will start. During the time of the judging, we will have our business meeting. Our judge, Rhonda Garland, will give each piece her utmost consideration. We are delighted to have such a professional with us tonight. During the show, Rhonda will attend to each category with a critique and awards. We applaud our judge for the consideration she gives to each painting. This is not an easy task, given the quality of BMAL work!

To better enjoy BMAL, join a committee. We presently need help with Hospitality (setting up for each meeting at 5:30 and taking down), Area Exhibits (transporting flats for one month and helping with show registration). See any board member to sign up.

Board meetings are open to member visitation. Please take the BMAL flyer to your grocery, to your art supply store, to your framer! Let's all help spread the word about our league!

Enjoy the meeting!
