The President's Corner

Hello Everyone,
 We are delighted to see everyone tonight. Thank you for all your efforts to provide such a delightful potluck, and also for the ever present feeling of fellowship. After dinner, our speaker will be Ritamarie Fieo, who excels in the craft of building doll houses.

We are hoping for your help in working together with our hosts, the Ben Wilson Senior Center. After our meal, could we please all clear the tables and help to leave the same number of chairs pushed in at the same tables. This act will help them to be ready for Bingo the next morning. We are also asked to take the trash out after Potluck dinners. Any help with cleanup and straightening up after our regular meetings is appreciated.

A big thank you is sent out to all who came early tonight to set up, and especially to the Hospitality Committee.

Please remember to let us know of any news of the members. We care and share!

Fulton Bank

736 Street Rd., Southampton

Set up: Thur., Jan. 8 at 9 a.m.

Help is still needed for storage and transportation of show flats. We need volunteers to help clean up and arrange tables and chairs after the meeting.

Tonight's Speaker

Ritamarie Fieo has been building doll houses for the past fifteen years. Built to scale, she also makes furniture and embellishments for the doll houses.

Looking forward to the New Year and our January speaker Desmond McRory

Desmond, a self-taught artist, was born in Bucks County and has been painting for 25 years. He considers himself to be a tonalist painter, simplifying his subject matter and setting the mood with an overall tone of colored atmosphere or mist. His Impressionist paintings can be seen at the Silverman Gallery in Buckingham.

Please contact Lynne Whitsel with any information for the newsletter. Deadline is the Wednesday before the meeting. Phone: 215 355-5730 or Email: lynnedw@verizon.net
