The President's Corner

Hello Everyone!

We are delighted to welcome Desmond McRory, an oil painter in the Impressionistic style, as our featured speaker. This program is such a great way to start the new year. Desmond's work can be seen at the Silverman Gallery in Buckingham.

Remember, if you are working on an entry for the March Members Show, all entries must be original. Your work must not be a copy of any other commercially produced work.

As you are reading this, look around and find a member who you may not know well, or a visitor, and please greet them. BMAL members are known to be personable painters.

It pays to exhibit at the bank shows....Just ask Lois Wursta and Linda Grafius!

Enjoy your evening with BMAL.

Signing up to transport the show flats for just one month would be a big help.
