

The President's Corner

Dear Members,
Welcome to one of our most popular meetings, the BMAL Members Show! In looking at the displayed art work and photography, you truly are able to celebrate and appreciate the BMAL member talent.

We are privileged to have Jim McFarlane as our painting judge. He is a well known artist and an experienced judge. I know he has his work cut out for him with such a fine array of art.

Our photography judge, Lorraine Raywood, brings professional knowledge of this genre of art with her.

As you enjoy our social time, after registration, please say hello to someone you may not have been introduced to before. It is wonderful to have guests with us, as well as new members.

We are seeking to be able to borrow a projector that would transfer images from a computer to our screen. Occasionally, this is a request from a speaker and it is a concern for us to be able to provide this equipment.

Also, we are searching for someone to be our Trip Coordinator.

Thank you to all of you who brought snacks. Good friends, good food, good art.....can't get any better!
