The President's Corner

Welcome to the meeting, members and visitors!
SPEAKER: We are delighted to have Patrick Seufert as our guest speaker. A talented oil painter, Patrick focuses on common architectural spaces, from industrial to residential, using contrasting vibrant colors to draw in the viewer. You are in for a visual treat tonight.
ELECTIONS IN MAY: All positions are up for re-election. Please notify a board member if you wish to be considered. Trips is open. Please greet someone who you do not know tonight....FRIENDS as well as ARTISTS AND ART APPRECIATORS are what we are about. Enjoy the evening.

Dawn

Friends Needed: We are now on Facebook and need some friends. Log onto Facebook (if you have an account), type in "Bucks-Mont Art League" in the Search area. Click the "Join" button to ask to Join the Group. We will soon after approve your "Join" request. Visit back to the Bucks-Mont Art League Facebook Page for updates. To submit an addition, select "Send Message" from the pull down menu on the far right. Names of members are not used and individual postings and comments are not accepted.

About our Speaker - Patrick Seufert

Patrick enjoys the challenge of taking everyday spaces that people live in and turning them into something unusual and captivating. If a work leans more toward the landscape, he tends to include some sort of man made structure. Patrick also enjoys producing humorous illustrations that show a different side of his personality.

Our Artists in the News

Bart Dunlap had 2 paintings accepted into the April juried show at the Meadowood Senior Center.

Val Miller sold a painting at the Huntingdon Valley Library. A number of our members are participating in the Pine Run Art Show in Doylestown. May 14 & 15 • 11a.m. to 3p.m.

Art Moves Outdoors

12 reproduction art images have been installed throughout Doylestown. One-hour walking tours will be led by Michener Art Museum docents. Tours are free. Call the museum to register for a tour and for dates and times.
