Our Speaker tonight: Steve Zazenski

A full time artist since 1978, Steve is known for his exciting and colorful landscapes, ranging from coastal New England to Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Steve paints in transparent watercolor or gouache, depending on the subject at hand. An intense feeling of light is apparent in all his work, as well as a strong sense of design.

Steve: "I use the natural and man made objects I see as design elements that combine to form interesting combinations of light and mass."

Steve is the recipient of numerous awards in many local and regional art shows.

When painting the fall landscape, using complementary colors will consistently make brilliant, colorful paintings that convey a happy feeling.

December Meeting is the Holiday Party

Bring light refreshments to share before the meeting.

Anna Boothe, a glass artist, will be our guest speaker.
